Adam is a very happy, enthusiastic, chatty and sociable little boy. His foster carer describes him as honest, caring and affectionate. He loves going to school and is extremely popular there; he is liked by students and teachers. Adam has a great sense of humour and loves nature and wildlife shows and documentaries. Adam also loves arts and crafts, stories, jigsaw puzzles, trampolining and lots of outdoor play at the park or beach. He can be a fussy eater and often won't eat meat. His favourite foods are meatballs and pasta, fruit and yoghurt. Adam enjoys watching television and films, his favourites are; Power Rangers, Mr Tumble, The Gruffalo, Peter Rabbit and Minions

Samuel loves to climb, particularly trees and climbing frames. He also loves outdoor play at the beach or park and riding his bike.

The children were removed from their birth parents care due to significant domestic violence between Samuel and Adam's birth parents, lack of engagement with support services and likely drugs and alcohol use.

Adam and Samuel have a positive relationship however they are starting to squabble which is manageable and appropriate. Adam and Samuel are very close and have a strong bond with each other. They play together well and enjoy each other's company.
